Letter from the Editor

Why is Helix a great institution of learning? Why is Helix unique? Why has Helix been so successful in all aspects of high school life this past year? What has caused this NEW Helix? The students themselves have caused it. They have brought about the continued and renewed successes our school has enjoyed.

Searching for knowledge . . . striving for success . . . pursuing excellence — these phrases are indicative of the type of student we have here at Helix. It is these students who know and understand the great diversity of activities, the excellence of the athletic teams, the wide variety of clubs, the quantity and quality of the four classes, and the knowledgeable and helpful faculty we have at Helix.

It is because of this awareness that we of the 1965 Tartan Staff have selected this year's Tartan to present Helix as you, the students, see it.

From the practice field to the big game, from the hours spent on homework to that well deserved "A" or "B" achieved in the classroom, it is our hope that the 1965 Tartan will recapture the total picture of Helix during the past year. May this total picture serve as a pleasant memorandum of the past, while also serving as a helpful aid in planning your future.

Sincerely,
 Jim Person
 Editor-in-Chief

SENIORS

... Becoming a Senior is something every student looks forward to with anxious anticipation. Seniors are looked up to and revered as the leaders of the clan. Certainly the three years spent in diligent study and preparation make the class of 1965 worthy of this honorary leadership. The events of the Senior year, from electing our Senior Officers to graduation, all played an important role in the success the class of '65 enjoyed. The Freshmen, when entering Helix, look upon Seniors with awe, amazement, and even fear. The Sophomores begin to believe they are human. Finally, the Juniors dedicate themselves to the task of becoming worthy of the title of Senior. This, then, is the great Senior Class of 1965 . . .

DEDICATION

Mrs. Stinnett

The Senior Class dedicates this year's Tartan to Mrs. Helen Stinnett. Mrs. Stinnett's inspirational help and guidance has been one of the major factors in making these past four years as successful as they have been. Her office door has always been open for students with problems both large and small. One of the busiest people on campus, she has always found time to be a friend as well as a counselor. It is with great pleasure that we dedicate the Tartan to Mrs. Stinnett.

SENIOR CLASS ADVISORS

Mrs. Stinnett

Mr. Pine

The class of 1965 would like to express its sincere appreciation to our counselors, Mrs. Stinnett and Mr. Carlton, and to our hard working advisors, Mr. Pine and Mrs. Duke. Without their help and advice, we would never have met the goals set forth for us this past year.

FOREIGN EXCHANGE STUDENT

Aladin Mohammed Wahba
Egypt

Aladin Wahba, our 1964-65 foreign exchange student, was born in Cairo, Egypt. He is seventeen years old. His favorite food in Egypt is roasted rabbit and a special food called Molokheya. He likes hamburgers and hot dogs with a lot of mustard because American food is not as spicy as that served in his native land.

He has a brother, Ahmed, and two sisters, Nora and Awa. Aladin misses his family and friends but likes the people here very much because they are all so friendly to him.

The school system is quite different from his in Egypt. There he goes to school from 8:30 to six. They do not have as many activities or social events as one finds here. Aladin also likes the dating system here. When he returns to Egypt, Aladin plans to study at the faculty of Economics and Political Sciences at the American University in Cairo.

The American Abroad last summer was Ellen D'Amico. Notified of her selection in June, Ellen sailed to Rotterdam, The Netherlands, and arrived in Turkey early in July. For the rest of July, she lived with her family at Florya, a campground on the Sea of Marmara. Her family lived in tents at the camp, as it is the custom of Turkish families to move to the beaches during the hotter summer months.

In August, Ellen and the Dokuztug family moved back to their apartment in Bakirkoy, a suburb of Istanbul. Her father was a dentist and the family kept, as pets, twenty-four canaries on a balcony of the apartment. Early in September, Ellen flew to Amsterdam and sailed back to America on the University of the Seven Seas. She arrived home in the middle of September.

SENIOR PLAY CYRANO DE BERGERAC

Roger Wiles

Marilyn Cunningham

This year's Senior Play, Cyrano De Bergerac, was one of the most successful productions ever to take place in the Little Theatre. Cyrano tells the story of an unrequited love. The play full of comedy, suspense, and tragedy was enjoyed by all. A special round of applause should be given to Mr. Edward Frank for his outstanding direction of the entire production. This memorable presentation opened December 3rd and ran the fourth, fifth, tenth and twelfth.

CLASSES

When a student first walks through the traditional Tartan he is receiving recognition as a classman. He is accepted as a Freshman and becomes part of the Helix clan. As this student proceeds up the class ladder, he matures both physically and emotionally. This new student to high school represents individuality and a great diversity of interests. This student and all other students have their imagination and emotion unified through class and school spirit. Throughout the student's high school career, he is striving for social and educational prominence. The following section presents that something which gives unity to the students without losing individuality, the classes.

introduction to the class

Junior Class

During the past year the Junior Class has continued to distinguish itself as one of the most efficient and hard-working classes at Helix. Every activity the Junior Class has participated in has had that little extra which made it outstanding. Among these were two dances, a pie-eating contest, a caroling party, the Junior Party, a Junior Paper, a bake-sale, and a car wash. This fine record is due to the class's tremendous spirit and participation. The class is looking forward to a very successful senior year.

SOPHOMORE CLASS

Bob Little
President

This year's Sophomore Class did more for Henix than any other 10th grade class when they painted the football scoreboard. Other activities included a car wash, bake sale, pie-social and the Sophomore Class Dance.

It is the only class this year to organize successfully and to carry out a class council, which is made up of a representative from each 10th grade English class. The council has organized most of the activities this year. The participation and spirit of the members of the class of '67 indicates a very promising future.

FRESHMAN CLASS

Don Limpic
President

This year's freshman class has outdone last year's with forty people taking out petitions for office, 32 returning them, and an increase in voting participation. Their activities included a bake sale and a dance. The class is governed by the Frosh Council. It is divided up into three committees: Activities, Finance, and Publicity. With such an enthusiastic start, the class of 1968 should prove to be exceptional in all respects.

CLUBS

Clubs always have been and always will be, an essential part of the life of a student attending Helix. The great diversity of clubs offers many well organized and regulated extra-curricular activities on campus. Clubs are the union of like interests shared by individual students. Be the interest in sports or hobbies, spirit or scholarship, the student at Helix finds himself surrounded with various clubs suiting his needs and desires. The next section of the 1965 Tartan is devoted entirely to these unions of interest, clubs of Helix High.

INTER-CLUB COUNCIL

The Inter-Club Council, composed of representatives from every on-campus club, works to co-ordinate all club activities and to create unity for these activities. The Council, led by Attorney General Ron Coover, sponsored a Club Week at the beginning of the year to acquaint students with the purposes and activities of registered clubs.

The individual clubs co-operated through the Inter-Club Council to organize the traditional Hoot Mon Night for the entertainment of Helix students. Hoot Mon Night is an annual, year-end event similar to a carnival. Besides entertainment, its purpose is to instill a Scottish feeling in the student body. Booths, which are sponsored by individual clubs, range from candied apple, snow cone, and pizza booths to water balloon throw, jail, and marriage booths.

Ron Coover, Attorney General

KEY CLUB

One of the most important and influential clubs on campus is the Helix Key Club. The Key Club which is sponsored by the Kiwanis Club, works to promote the adoption and application of higher standards in scholarship, sportsmanship and social contacts within the school and the community. Led by President Toddy Martinez, the officers and their advisor, Mr. Gene Brophy, the members sponsored several drives and car washes, an entertainment assembly for the student body, and a Key Club banquet.

At Helix there are four different Y Teen groups, Senior, Junior, Sophomore and Freshman, which are all affiliated with the YWCA. Each group has its own advisor, officers and activities during the year and they all co-operate on certain projects through the Y-Teens Inter Club Council. The goals of the Y Teens are to grow as a person, to grow in friendship with people of all races, religions and nationalities, and to grow in the knowledge of God. Each group has service and social projects and also participates in county and state conferences and projects.

The Senior Y Teens, led by President Janice Ambler, began the year by playing the Mount Miguel Senior Y Teens to a 6-6 tie in this year's Powder Puff football game. They had several joints with groups from other schools and also held a scavenger hunt to collect clothes for a Mexican orphanage.

ACTIVITIES

The clash of symbols, a cheering crowd, election speeches, or perhaps the bustle of girls' league activity are all a part of student life echoing through our Highland halls. This is where the students take over and strive for victory through leadership. Leadership is a word supported by student participation.

At Helix we have great student participation. This participation is shown through the many fine activities offered to the student body. Among these are our great marching band and talented Hi steppers; a hard working student government class; the spirited, vigorous cheerleaders; the unique, interesting assemblies. All of these student supported activities have created a truly New Helix.

The following pages of the TARTAN exemplify this very important part of student life at Helix, the activities.

BAGPIPE BAND

The flash of swords, the rumble of drums, and the sound of bagpipes bring forth the picture of our marvelous Bagpipe Band.

The Bagpipe Band, which was instituted in 1951, has become a tradition at Helix. They spend many hours practicing their routines in order to bring all Highlanders a glimpse of the original Highland songs and dances. This group performs at football halftimes, as well as in parades. Each of the twenty-five members deserves the congratulations of the Helix Student Body

The theme of this year's Christmas Dance was "A Fantasy of Stars and Candy Canes." Being Helix' only semi-formal dance of the year, it was enjoyed by all who attended. Each year a king and queen are selected and this year's royal pair was Byron Olander and Margo Flashaar.

Thank you Christmas Dance committee for putting on this wonderful dance.

SPORTS

... Participation in athletics is another important aspect of life at Helix. With outstanding individuals united in team effort and led by the guidance of a great coaching staff, Helix has developed a winning tradition. Its many fine teams have brought a certain amount of well deserved prestige to Helix.

The rewards of athletics such as becoming physically fit, developing leadership capacities, and becoming a good sport will last a lifetime. Winning the big game is the fulfillment of many personal sacrifices.

Athletics is also a form of relaxation and enjoyment for both the participant and the fan. The pride that the students of Helix have in their school is exhibited by the great spirit and support they give their teams.

Fierce competition, a winning tradition, and student support are all indicative of the next section of your 1965 Tartan, sports ...

CROSS COUNTRY

This year's Cross Country team, coached by Mike Muirhead, compiled a 3-4 overall effort this season. Although hampered by a shortage of returning lettermen, the team produced many fine runners such as All Leagues Eric Russell and Rick Rubin, as well as Jim Person, Dick French, Jeff Sell, and Nelson Edwards. In addition, the Helix Harriers placed a second in the Aztec Invitational and were runner ups in CIF competition.

The J.V. team ran up a 5-2 season record and should pace a strong varsity team next season.

The Freshmen made a fine showing, taking top honors in the Grossmont League.

Coach Nash's JV team this year, composed entirely of Sophomores, compiled a tremendous 17-2 record winning the Grossmont League championship. Much of its strength came from such varsity potentials as Mark Brown and Rick Barnes, who both played half the regular season on varsity and Rick Edwards, Joe Smith, Judd Carson, Kent Madsen, and Larry Creel. Likewise, Coach Walker's Freshman team should make another great JV team with players like Greg Gleason, Mike Monahan, Bob Kellison, and Roy Gayhart.

The team was led by such fine seniors as Dave Young, Ron Coover, George Peterman, and Mike Simpson. The varsity was also aided by John Young, Robin Eady, Paul Heggie, Bob Nunez, John Thorsnes, Rory Nilsson and Jeff Gibson. The future looks bright with these men returning next season. Due to Tartan deadlines, we are not sure of the exact final standings of this year's varsity track team. FACULTY

... Learned individuals from various sections of the United States are united as the faculty of Helix High. Years of schooling and experience have contributed to the preparation of this important group of individuals. This preparation, which in many cases includes advanced degrees, is vital to this unique and highly distinguished profession.

Yet, how do students view this select group of people? At times, a student views a teacher as a serf would view his master. At other times, the teacher seems like an intimate friend and confidante.

In any event, it can be said that our students of Helix are aware of the importance of the faculty. The help, guidance, and the inspiration to learn is instilled in us by these dedicated people.

The next section of the Tartan is in recognition of the important work the faculty is doing here at Helix ...

My congratulations to each member of the class of 1965 for your successful completion of 12 years of formal education. Many of you have achieved outstanding success in the academic areas during your educational experience while in attendance at Helix High. Your class is to be complimented upon the leadership and contributions it has made in enhancing the school program and for furthering the school's reputation.

It is important that each of you realize that you have completed the first step in your educational experience. Education is a continual process. Therefore it is essential that you are open to change and improvement in your professional and vocational goals. Your community needs your talents and skills; it is my hope for you that it will be a better place to live because of your leadership.

During the past fourteen years almost six thousand students have graduated from Helix High School. Some are doctors, lawyers or teachers; others are skilled technicians, housewives, or students in college. Wherever they are, whatever they are doing, we know they are true Highlanders, making us proud of their accomplishments. Keep up this fine tradition, come back to see us, and congratulations on a job well done.

Hazel Bole
Vice Principal

Your graduation from Helix High School marks the end of a beginning. To wherever your aspirations take you, may I send with you my congratulations and best wishes for outstanding achievement.

From this beginning, the responsibility for your education shifts from the State to you. In this highly competitive society, you will desperately need every additional hour of education or training you can manage. Regardless of the sacrifice you will make to continue your education, you will be repaid geometrically in personal satisfaction and in dollars.

I wish you every success in life, and may you send us teenagers as cooperative and responsible as you have been.

IN MEMORIUM MISS KING

November 1 1899 — November 13, 1964

Miss King was born in India, the daughter of missionaries. She taught thirty-nine years, thirty-four of these were in the Grossmont District. Miss King was a member of the original faculty at Helix fourteen years ago. She organized the Science Department at Helix and was chairman of the department for six years. She recognized the need for newer methods in teaching, and she was eager to make changes. Many of her students went on to eminence in various fields of biology. Miss King passed away due to leukemia just after reaching her sixty-fifth birthday.

IN MEMORIUM MR. BONOMO

October 19, 1933 — August 20, 1964

Mr. Bonomo was raised in Flint, Michigan. He taught eight years his last two years at Helix. Mr. Bonomo graduated from the University of Detroit with a degree in English and Latin and was working on his Master's degree. He liked teen-agers and enjoyed sports. He liked working with students so much that he taught a special seminar for accelerated students instead of taking a study period. Mr. Bonomo was also a religious man. He was scheduled to become the principal of a church school in Santee before he died in a tragic traffic accident.
